Old Timers Baseball Association of Portland Diamond Classic Golf Tournament

The Old Timers Baseball Association of Portland's annual golf tournament was held Monday, August 5, 2019 at The Reserve Vineyards and Golf Club in Aloha.

The Old-Timers Baseball Association of Portland is an inclusive, non-profit organization raising funds with the goal of tutoring, mentoring and giving back to the amateur/professional baseball community.

On the first Monday of August each year we hold a golf tournament to help raise money for our organization to give to youth baseball organizations.

We would like to thank all of the participants, sponsors, and organizations that donated to our cause. A special thank you to all of the celebrities who participated, included former Portland Trailblazers Larry Steele, Bob Gross, and Cliff Robinson, former MLB players Tom Gorman and Mike Ekstrom, former NFL Tight End Josh Wilcox, and Fox 12 Meteorologist Jeff Forgeron.

For questions, email us at: pdxoldtimersbaseball@gmail.com

Pacific Coast League

The Tacoma Rainiers lost a three-game series to the Oklahoma City Dodgers and have split the first two games of a four game series at New Orleans against the Baby Cakes. The Rainiers (53-66) are now 11 games behind first place Sacramento (64-55) in the PCL Pacific North Division.

After the series in New Orleans, the Rainiers will return home to begin a series with Fresno on Thursday, August 15th, followed by a three-game series with Salt Lake. The eleven game home stand will finish up the Rainiers home schedule.

The Tacoma Rainiers are the only Pacific Northwest based Pacific Coast League team, but there are plenty of opportunities to see the Triple-A players from your favorite MLB teams when they play in Tacoma.

Upcoming home series:

August 15 – 18 Fresno Grizzlies (Washington Nationals)

August 19 – 21 Salt Lake Bees (LA Angels)

August 22 – 25 Las Vegas Aviators (Oakland A's)

West Coast League

The regular season came to an end Sunday night (August 11) and the playoffs are set. In the North Division, the Wenatchee AppleSox will host the Victoria HarborCats in Game One Tuesday evening, while the Corvallis Knights travel to Walla Walla for Game One of the South Division series. The series will shift to Victoria and Corvallis for Game Two Wednesday evening and for Game Three (if necessary) Thursday. The three game Championship Series between the winners is scheduled to begin Saturday, August 17.

Ninety former and current West Coast League players were recently selected in MLB's annual amateur draft. Adley Rutschman (Oregon State University and the Corvallis Knights) was selected number one overall by the Baltimore Orioles and Andrew Vaughn (University of California and the Victoria HarborCats) was selected number three overall by the Chicago White Sox. The entire list of the ninety players selected in June's draft can be found by clicking here.

About the West Coast League:

The West Coast League (WCL) is the premier summer collegiate baseball league west of the Mississippi. Situated in the beautiful Pacific Northwest, the 15-year-old, 12-team, professionally operated wood-bat league showcases pro prospects from major conferences around the nation. Every summer, the league features unparalleled fan and player experiences, with the best summer weather in North America. Seventy-two players with WCL experience were selected in the MLB 2018 June draft. Also in 2018, 294 WCL alums appeared or were active in affiliated professional baseball, including 39 in the major leagues, such as all-star outfielder Mitch Haniger (Seattle Mariners); ace hurler James Paxton (New York Yankees); slugger Rhys Hoskins (Philadelphia Phillies); and rising star pitchers Marco Gonzales (Seattle Mariners) and Matt Boyd (Detroit Tigers). Overall member attendance was 496,278 this past summer, a tremendous increase of 20 percent over the previous season.
